

Emanuele Scibilia

Director, Private Banking

Emanuele Scibilia has been a Director within the Private Banking Department of Banca Zarattini & Co. since 2024 and brings extensive experience in serving private clients and high-net-worth individuals.

He is part of the Bank's Commercial Management team, contributing to the development and management of client relationships.

He has built a longstanding career in the banking sector, managing high-net-worth client portfolios and developing tailored investment strategies and integrated financial solutions.

He has gained solid expertise in financial advisory services, with competencies in investment markets, retirement planning, and lending, while holding positions of increasing responsibility throughout his career.

He has also developed experience in team management and in coordinating commercial and operational activities.

He is recognized for his strong interpersonal skills, client-focused approach, and commitment to building long-term relationships.

He holds the SAQ Certified Wealth Management Advisor certification.

Throughout his career, he has also developed broad organizational and management expertise.